You must send us proof of all these savings if they are worth £6,000 or more in total. For example, your most recent bank statements or a savings account book. Bank statements must show dates relevant to the time you complete this claim form and savings account books must be up to date.

Part 8 Checklist

Please tick to say what evidence you are sending with this form. We must see original documents, not copies.

If you do not provide all the evidence we need, we might not be able to pay you any benefit. We need the same evidence for your partner, if you have one.

- Evidence of identity and national insurance number of any new partner.
Such as a birth certificate, marriage certificate, passport, National Insurance number card, medical card, driving licence, EEC identity card or UK residence permit.
We need to see two kinds of identification.

 - Evidence of capital, savings and investments
Such as all your bank, building society or post office books, full bank statements, or certificates for premium bonds, National Savings Certificates, ISAs, stocks, shares and unit trusts. We need to see evidence of any interest or dividends you get on investments and savings. Bank statements must show dates relevant to the time you complete this claim form and savings account books must be up to date.

 - Evidence of earnings
We also need this for other adults who form part of your household.
This means your last five payslips if you are paid every week, your last three payslips if you are paid every two weeks, or your last two payslips if you are paid every month.

 - Evidence of self-employed earnings
If you or your partner are self-employed, we need to see your accounts for the last financial year or, if you have been trading for less than six months, details of your trading records so far.

 - Evidence of other income
We also need this for other adults who form part of your household.
Such as pension slips from a former employer, proof of bonus or a letter from the court showing how much maintenance you are getting. We need to see evidence of any money people pay you for Board and Lodgings.

 - Evidence of benefits, allowances or pensions
We also need this for other adults who form part of your household.
Such as current award notices or letters from social security or HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) confirming how much you get. If you do not have evidence, let us know straight away.

Do not delay returning this form while you are waiting for documents we need as proof, because you may lose entitlement.

Part 9 What to do next

When you have filled in the form sign it and send it to this Benefits Office with the proof we need to see. When you send us original documents in the post we will return them to you within 3 working days.

Please do not send valuable documents such as bank books and passports through the post. If you can, bring them to your Local Authority Benefits Office. If you cannot get to your Local Authority Benefits Office, we suggest sending valuable documents by recorded or special delivery.

If you cannot get the proof we need straight away, do not worry. Send the form to us with the proof you do have and let us know that you will be sending some proof later.

If you do not send the form to us straight away, you might lose money.

Changes you must tell this Benefits Office about

For example:

- your tax credit payments change
- your income or the income of anyone living with you, including benefits, changes
- you or anyone living with you starts work
- any of your children leave school or leave home
- anyone moves into or out of your home, including lodgers and subtenants
- you or anyone living with you becomes a student, goes on a Youth Training Scheme, goes into hospital or a nursing home, goes into prison, or changes or leaves a job
- your capital or savings change
- your rent changes
- you move
- you or your partner are going to be away from home for 4 weeks or more
- anything you have told us about changes
- you or your partner starts/stops receiving Universal Credit

This is not a full list. If you are not sure, ask us for advice. Tell us about any changes in writing - a phone call is not enough. If you do not tell this Benefits Office about these changes, you may lose money you are entitled to or you may get too much.

You must make sure you tell this Benefits Office about any changes. Don't rely on someone else to pass this message on. There may be a financial penalty if you do not tell this Benefits Office about a change that affects your Council Tax within 21 days of that change.

It is an offence not to tell this Benefits Office about any change of circumstance that may affect your award. We may take court action against you and if we pay you too much, you will probably have to pay it back.

Even if someone else has filled in this form for you, you must sign this declaration.

Part 10 Your declaration

Even if someone else has filled in this form for you, you must sign this declaration if you can. If you have a partner, getting them to sign this form should allow us to process your claim more quickly, but they do not have to sign.

Please read this declaration carefully before you sign and date it.

- The information I have given on this form is true and complete.
- I understand that if I give information that is incorrect or incomplete, you may take action against me. This may include court action.
- I agree that you will use the information I have provided to process my claim for Housing Benefit or Council Tax Support, (Council Tax Benefit if before 1 April 2013) or both. You may check some of the information with other organisations as allowed by the law.
- I understand you are under a duty to protect the public funds you manage, and may use the information I have provided on this form to prevent and detect fraud. You may also share this information with other bodies responsible for checking or managing public funds for the same purposes. These other bodies include government departments, like the Department for Work and Pensions, other local authorities and organisations such as banks and organisations that lend me money.
- I know that I must let you know in writing about any change in my circumstances which might affect my claim.

I declare the information I have given on this form is correct and complete.

Part 11 How your Benefits Office collects and uses information

We will use the information you give in this form, and in any supporting evidence you send, to process your claim for Housing Benefit and Council Tax Support. It may also be used for the accounting and recovery of Council Tax.

The authority is under a duty to protect the public funds it administers, and to this end may use the information you have provided on this form for the prevention and detection of fraud. It may also share this information with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds for these purposes.

These other bodies include government departments, like the Department for Work and Pensions; other local authorities and private sector organisations such as banks and organisations that lend you money.

We will not give information about you to anyone else, or use information about you for other purposes, unless the law allows this.

Your local council is a data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act.

If you want to know more about what information we have about you, or the way we use that information, please ask us.

If you have any information about false claims, please contact us on Fraud Freephone Confidential Hotline 0800 096 3596
