

BBQ Guidelines

Our only designated BBQ area is located at the Western end of Sandbanks Promenade close to the dog beach.

For BBQ's with 30 – 100 people (maximum), permission from the Council must be obtained.

Please note that anyone holding a BBQ on any beach you must comply with the following terms and conditions:

- BBQ's cannot start before 6pm and must be completed by 11pm. (unless in the designated BBQ zone at Sandbanks where BBQ's are permitted between 9am and 11pm on a first come first served basis.
- Large BBQ's and parties must take place in the designated areas – not on the promenade, patio areas, beach hut patios, balcony areas or sand dunes. We cannot guarantee that your party will have exclusive use of the designated area.
- No loud or amplified music is permitted – please keep all noise to a minimum.
- Generators of any kind are not permitted on our beaches or promenades.
- Only charcoal BBQ's may be used – there can be no open fires.
- Flashing lights are not permitted on site – you are on the shoreline and the use of flashing or laser lights can be hazardous.
- There must be no financial transactions carried out in relation to the BBQ e.g. payment for food or drinks by the general public.
- The promenade cannot be used for access, unloading or equipment or parking of vehicles.
- Car parking charges as posted will apply if using any Council car park whilst attending any event, BBQ or private function.
- Please leave the site in a clean and tidy condition. All litter must be removed and deposited in nearby waste bins. Please remember to recycle.
- Please do not bury rubbish in the sand – it may cause a health & safety hazard to other beach users.
- Please leave used portable BBQ's on the promenade next to the bins for collection by our beach cleaners. Metal waste bins are provided at Sandbanks for the disposing of ashes. Do not put hot ashes in the plastic waste bins.
- Please give proper consideration and respect to other beach users.
- Council officers will be carrying out routine checks and have the authority to enforce these guidelines.
